

Stapleton Group, Inc. Acquires Alpha & Omega Insurance Agency, LLC.

—November 1, 2011

Stapleton Group, Inc. announced today that it has acquired the assets of Alpha & Omega Insurance Agency, LLC., (A&O) a Holland, Ohio based insurance agency. Terms of the acquisition were not disclosed. The A&O team will become a part of the Swanton, Ohio operations of Stapleton Insurance Group. Nathan Smith, the principal of A&O will join Stapleton's Swanton operations as part of this transaction.

A&O specializes in offering commercial and personal property/casualty services throughout Northwest Ohio and Southeastern Michigan. With outstanding client relationship and quality insurance programs A&O is well positioned to excel.

“Alpha & Omega is a highly respected firm with a long history of success,” said Grayce Scardina, CIC, Vice President of Property & Casualty Operations. “Nathan Smith and his team are well positioned to continue to build our operations through organic growth. Our team is excited to welcome A&O’s team to ours, and we look forward to serving their customers with the best services and products available in the marketplace.”

Established by R.E. Stapleton in 1927, Stapleton Group is a privately held firm offering property and casualty, employee benefits and risk management services for both businesses and individuals. Stapleton Group has offices in Sylvania, Swanton, Perrysburg, and Metamora, Ohio.
